SEEDS OF HOPE™
ARMENIA

seed hope, one little seed at a time

Mission

Seeds of Hope Armenia is a women-led and community-driven humanitarian organization based in Washington D.C. with the mission of providing direct comprehensive humanitarian aid to people impacted by war and conflict in Armenia and Artsakh.

About Us

In October 2020, a humanitarian crisis erupted when hostilities resumed against the people of Artsakh and Armenia leaving personal, social, and physical devastation in its wake. Seeds of Hope Armenia, a non-profit humanitarian organization, issued a call to action to support those in need. We provide direct humanitarian aid through financial and medical means to the people and families most impacted. Leading with transparency, it is our hope to provide as much relief to these families as possible through the generosity of our supporters.

"I chose to donate to Seeds of Hope Armenia because of their transparency with their candidate assistance selection process. I receive reports on the candidate's welfare regularly and feel that I have made a difference in their lives. Their compassion and professionalism during the process engendered my trust and reports from the candidate endeared me to their program."
